MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT
NATIONAL VETERINARY SERVICES LIMITED (NVSL)

Introduction

This statement sets out NVSL’s actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to its business and steps in place aimed at reducing the risk of slavery or human trafficking in its own business and its supply chains.

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour, and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person’s liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

As an employer in the Distribution and Logistics industry, NVSL recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking. NVSL is committed to ensuring our employees work in satisfactory conditions and that we fully comply with both Health and Safety and employment law standards and requirements in the United Kingdom.

NVSL is committed to the principles of fair and honest trading, through the way in which we source goods and develop relationships with suppliers who share the same principles.

- Where possible we will build long standing relationships with suppliers and make clear our expectations of business behaviour.
- We will invoke sanctions against suppliers that fail to improve their performance in line with an action plan that may be agreed.

Risk Assessment

The following is a process by which the company assesses whether particular activities or countries are higher risk in relation to slavery or human trafficking:

- We mainly source goods from UK suppliers and require these entities to have suitable anti-slavery and human trafficking policies and processes and commit to not sourcing from countries considered to be higher risk as identified by the global slavery index.

Key performance indicators to measure effectiveness of steps being taken

We have the following activities in place to strive to minimise the risk of modern slavery in our supply chain:

- For our workforce, we have processes in place to verify our new hires have the right to work in the UK, including documentation checks. Additionally, we require new employees to be paid into a bank account of their own name.
- For our suppliers, we have processes in place to only accept new suppliers who meet the requirements of our assessment.
